

4. Qualification: After post-graduation and highest first

	Degree	University/Board etc.	Year of passing
A
B
C

5. Experience: Latest first

	Designation	College/Institution	Year from	Year to	Status*
A
B
C
D

6. Publications

			Number
	National Journals	Original articles
		Review articles
		Letter to editor
		Other
	International Journals	Original articles
		Review articles
		Letter to editor
		Other
	Book chapters
	Member of editorial board

Please attach a copy of short V mentioning Publications, Fellowships, Awards, and Areas of interest and Teaching experience etc.

7. Achievements:

	Proposed by	Signature	ICRO No.	AROI No.
1
2

Place & Date: .....

Signature of Applicant: .....

FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY

Ratified by ICRO Executive Committee dated:
Membership Approved / Not Approved

Life / Associate / Overseas / Honorary

Chairman ICRO

Secretary ICRO

Indian College of Radiation Oncology (ICRO): Academic wing of AROI
Membership Information

The Indian College of Radiation Oncology (ICRO) has been established with the specific purpose of promoting academic and research activities of the Association of Radiation Oncologists of India (AROI). To be eligible for the membership of the college, one should be a recognized teacher with high academic & research credentials. Some of the excerpts from the rules of AROI-constitution 54:

B. Rules and Bye-Laws of the College: The College shall be formed by the members who shall be elected by the Governing Council of the College. The Governing Council will administer the affairs of the College on accordance with the rules and bye-laws of the Association and College; however, the General Body formed by the members of the college shall be the supreme body that shall exercise overall control over the Governing Council. The College have the following categories of the members:

a). Founder Members (FM): *This membership (FM) has been closed on 31 March 1998.

- i. Life member of AROI for more than 10 years.
- ii. Possessing a recognized post-graduate qualification with more than 10 years' experience after post-graduation.
- iii. At least 5 research publications in books/journals.
- iv. Paid admission fee and membership subscription, at the prescribed rate, to the college.

b). Life Members (LM):

- i. Life member of AROI
- ii. Possessing a recognized post-graduate with more than 10 years' experience after post-graduation.
- iii. At least 5 research publications in books/journals.
- iv. Paid admission fee and membership subscription, at the prescribed rate, to the college.
- v. Affiliated to a teaching institution imparting post-graduate training in Radiation Oncology or to a research institution conducting research in oncology [presently or for more than 7 years in the past].
- vi. Application proposed and seconded by two founder members, fellow or life members of the College.

c). Associate Members (AM):

- i. Associate Life Member of AROI
- ii. More than 10 years of teaching / research experience in the respective specialty.
- iii. At least 5 research publications in books/journals.
- iv. Paid admission fee and membership subscription, at the prescribed rate, to the college.
- v. Affiliated to a teaching institution imparting post-graduate training in Radiation Oncology or to a research institution conducting research in oncology [presently or for more than 8 years in the past].
- vi. Application proposed and seconded by two founder members / fellow or life members of the College.

d). Overseas Members (OM):

- i. Professionals in the specialties of Radiation Oncology, Oncology, Medical Physics, Radiation Medicine, Radiobiology and allied disciplines staying and working in these fields in teaching medical institutions outside India for more than one year.
- ii. Possessing a post-graduate qualification recognized by the national medical councils in their respective countries with more than 10 years of professional experience after post-graduation.
- iii. Life member of AROI
- iv. At least 10 research publications
- v. Paid admission fee and membership subscription, at the prescribed rate, to the college
- vi. Application proposed and seconded by two founder members, fellow or life members of the College.

e). Honorary Members (HM):

- i. All the honorary members of the Association

C. Fellows of the College:

A designation "Fellow of the Indian College of Radiation Oncology" (FICRO) may be conferred by the Governing Council upon the College members under the following categories: a) Founder Fellow: All founder members of the college shall be entitled to receive fellowship subject to payment of the fellowship fee.

a). Fellows:

- i. Members of the college.
- ii. Possessing more than 15 years of experience after post-graduation or those having made outstanding contribution to the field of Radiation Oncology by way of promoting growth of this discipline in the country, conducting dedicated research work in the specialty, publishing highest number of research papers in the indexed journals (excluding case reports) or those having been bestowed upon a national / international honor or position.

Members coming under above criteria shall be eligible for award of Fellowship of the College. All such cases shall be processed by the Governing Council for election of Fellows depending upon the vacancies available. The number of vacancies, thus available shall be drawn annually. Names of all the members eligible for Fellowship shall be circulated by the College Secretary to all the Fellows [including Founder Fellows] by way of secret ballot system in June/July each year, if vacancies available. List, in order of preference, based upon the number of votes polled by each member, shall be prepared. New fellows, equivalent to the number of vacancies available, shall thus be elected, shall be circulated again as above after one year along with the names of the new candidates that become eligible during this period, depending upon the vacancies available, if any.

Fellowship to the newly elected candidate shall be conferred upon during the Annual Congress of the Association subject to the Fellow elect having paid the prescribed Fellowship Fee, at least one month before the congress.

Honorary Fellows: The Honorary Members of the College shall be conferred upon the Honorary fellowship also the College. They shall not pay any fee towards this honor.

D. Admission / Membership / Fellowship Fee of the College:

I am enclosing the required subscription fee of Rs.6100/-(Rupees Six thousand One Hundred Fifty)

E. Rights and Privileges of the Fellows / Members of the College.

a).. Every Founder member of the college shall be entitled to:

- i. Attend, take part and vote in the general body meetings of the College and be entitled to vote in any manner as prescribed by the College.
- ii. Membership of the Governing Council of the Association.
- iii. Propose or second candidates for admission to the College.
- iv. Introduce visitors to scientific meetings of the College.
- v. Fellowship of the College.

b).. Every Life member of the college shall be entitled to:

- i. Attend, take part and vote in the general body meetings of the College and be entitled to vote in any manner as prescribed by the College.
- ii. Membership of the Governing Council of the Association provided he/she is a member of the college for more than 4 years.
- iii. Propose or second candidates for admission to the College.
- iv. Introduce visitors to scientific meetings of the College.
- v. Fellowship of the College through the prescribed election process subject to the eligibility criteria and availability of vacancies.

- b) Every overseas member of the college shall be entitled to:
- i. Attend and take part in the meetings of the College but shall not be eligible to hold any office or be elected to the Governing Council nor to exercise the right of voting at any meeting of the College, but may be co-opted as members in the Governing Council or in various committees and sub-committees of the College.
  - ii. Propose or second overseas candidates for admission to the College.
  - iii. Introduce visitors to scientific meetings of the College.
  - iv. Fellowship of the College through the prescribed election process subject to the eligibility criteria and availability of vacancies.
- d). Every Associate member of the college shall be entitled to:
- i. Attend and take part in the meetings of the College but shall not be eligible to hold any office or be elected to the Governing Council nor to exercise the right of voting at any meeting of the College, but may be co-opted as members in the Governing Council or in various committees and sub-committees of the College.
  - ii. Introduce visitors to scientific meetings of the College.
- e). Every honorary member of the college shall be entitled to:
- i. Attend and take part in the meetings of the College but shall not be eligible to hold any office or be elected to the Governing Council nor to exercise the right of voting at any meeting of the College, but may be co-opted as members in the Governing Council or in various committees and sub-committees of the College.
  - ii. Propose or second overseas candidates for admission to the College.
  - iii. Introduce visitors to scientific meetings of the College.
- f). Every Fellow of the college shall be entitled to:
- i. All privilege as admissible to a founder member of the College.
  - ii. Elect new fellows of the College depending upon the eligibility criteria of the member and the number of vacancies.

F. Management of the College: The supreme control over the affairs of the college shall vest in the College body called Governing Council of the Indian College of Radiation Oncology. The Governing Council shall consist of:

G. Governing Council of the College: The College will be governed in all its matter by an apex body called the Governing Council of the Indian College of Radiation Oncology. The Governing Council shall consist of:

- i. Elected Members: The Chairman, The Vice Chairman, The Secretary, Two members shall be elected by the college body, as executive members of the Governing Council, from the floor during its annual meetings.
- ii. Nominated Members: Treasurer of the College – from the place of Secretary of the College.
- iii. Ex-Officio Members: President AROI
- iv. Co-Opted Members: Three members, out of which at least one would be an overseas member and one honorary member of the College.